Silchester, and first reported in 1873, was rediscovered in 2014. It does not compare in its carved detail with coping stones from the amphitheatres at Chester and London, nor with that recovered from the West Gate, Silchester, in 1890; nor does its basal width correspond with that of the arena wall of the Silchester amphitheatre.

Committee is made up from representatives from the Parish Council and the different sports clubs that use the facilities. It's role is to provide a safe environment for all team members and visitors that use the pavilion, and it works closely with other local groups who wish to use the facilities for occasional and annual events.
